THE AREA

Amélie-Les-Bains is located at the fork of the Mondony and Tech rivers, close to Ceret in the Pyrenees-Orientales area of France. A spa town, it got its name from the then queen Marie Amélie Thérèse or Queen Amélie for short. She promoted the town some years later. There are two spa baths, Mondony and the Roman Baths which use a preserved roman site. A picturesque town, many of the buildings are of the same style with light facades and red tiles roofs including the church which overlooks the town. In nearby Ceret, there are regular markets as well as opportunities to go canyoning.
