THE AREA

Saint-Cyprien is a popular seaside resort located close to both Perpignan and the Spanish border. The town offers a range of year round entertainment including festivals, watersports and sporting tournaments. Saint-Cyprien has a large marina, one of the largest in France with ample opportunity for sailing, fishing and pleasure cruises. The nearby Perpignan is the region's capital and is home to a range of shops, restaurants and excellent transport links across the South of France, to Spain and to Paris.
